	Poems from my Journey by Tracy Andrews 978-0-473-39073-0 Currently only available online. "Poems from my Journey traces the author's pilgrimage from rejection and pain to a place of forgiveness and healing. Her heart-felt poems will resonate with fellow pilgrims who are walking similar difficult paths. Her hunger for God and the hope she discovers as she seeks Him will serve as beacons on the dark path and point the way to Yahweh Rapha, the God who heals." ~Rosie Boom		Forbidden History by John D. Aldworth 978-0-473-35264-6 $50 Contact: john.alldworth@hotmail.com Did golden-haired Celts settle the Pacific 1000 years before the Maori? Forbidden History contends that there were people here before the Maori. Therefore, why would we not pursue that possibility and acknowledge those who are from different tribes - be they European, Asian, Moriori or other? Are we not proud to be multicultural these days?

	Noah's Land by John D. Aldworth 978-0-473-49172-7 $45 Contact: john.alldworth@hotmail.com Did the great patriarch colonise New Zealand in 2225BC? The cover photograph is of a statue at Purekireki Marae, Pirongia, in the Waikato, which depicts an ancestor of the Patupaiarehe people and Nuku (Noah in the ancient language of New Zealand) is said to be their founding father. So, was Noah the first to find and settle this country? Read this book to find out about the "rainbow god", the "long land of Noah" and a forbidden city whose carbon dating dates to the time after the flood, and before Noah's death. John Aldworth digs deeper!		The Glory of His Day by John D. Aldworth 978-0-473-62478-1 $25 Contact: john.alldworth@hotmail.com Have we forgotten God's promise of great blessing for mankind? A new age is about to dawn. Will it see God wreak His wrath on the world or bring in a wonderful tomorrow? The answer may lie in a Bible phrase ignored and forgotten today. The truth of a wonderful day when Christ displays His full glory as Almighty God, yet, in the early church, the 'day of Christ' was the apostles' 'blessed hope'.
	Wilderness Like Eden by Richard Fellows (AUSTRALIA) 978-0-648-58830-6 Available online only The supernatural appearing of gemstones from Heaven around the world led Richy to do research on what this phenomenon was. How is it related to the God of the Bible? In Wilderness like Eden, these questions are addressed in the light of God's Heavenly Kingdom intimately clothing Eden, the Bride and the Sons of God - their functions and callings in the earth.		Granny Rainbow Shekinah by Richard Fellows (AUSTRALIA) 978-0-648-58832-0 Available online only Throughout history, God has revealed Himself in His creation. He visited earth in the Garden of Eden, in Theophanies in the Old Testament, in the incarnation of Jesus, and also in disguise, after His resurrection and ascension into Heaven. But what of the Holy Spirit, what is His image and likeness? What is the Holy Spirit's "form" and essence as the Spirit of Glory? Richy addresses these questions in this book.
	Heaven Through the Eyes of Children by Richard Fellows (AUSTRALIA) 978-0-648-58834-4 Available online only Richard Fellows analyses unique descriptions of Heaven as experienced through the eyes of children who have had phenomenal experiences of visiting Heaven during praise and worship times.		The Father's Garden by Richard Fellows (AUSTRALIA) 978-0-648-58835-1 Available online only Richard Fellows now brings us to a more detailed description of a specific area of Heaven - The Father's Garden.
